A WEEKLY CHRISTIAN PAPER.

FUELISHED FYERY SATURDAY.

Will advocate the interests of Catholic Christianity, leaning toward no particular Church, giving precedence to no sect, as such, but, we true, representing those most important principles which have united Christians everywhere during the progress of the present Religious Revival.

We extend the right hand of fellowship to all who can unite with us on this common ground.

We approach our duties, having in view the Religious and Moral Elevation of Young Men and Children, as the most available means of insuring peace and good-will among men. If this ground be considered too exclusive, all we can do it to invite the generation that is passing away to look on our work, watch how the young profit by less, no learned in "THE WAY OF LIFE," and, in the strength of their Redeemer, "go and do likewise."
